

Steps for FISM WCM

How to become a contestant for FISM WCM

If you want to compete at the FISM WCM,

From Asia you must pass ACM,
You CAN NOT compete at the FISM WCM directly.

<A> If you are a member of a FISM member club

Get an
1 x Authorization
from your club

Please contact your club or the president (your club must be a FISM member). They will help you to be a contestant for the continental contest.

*The club recommends you to be a contestant of the continental championship (It means you must be a member of that club).

 If your country have NO any FISM member clubs

Get
3 x Authorization
from 3 FISM clubs from different countries

Please contact at least 3 clubs of FISM presidents (any countries but at least 1 from Asia). They will help you to be a contestant for a FISM continental contest.

*the club/president recommends you to be a contestant of the FISM continental contest

<C> If you are a member of a FISM member club or If your country have NO any FISM member clubs

Get an
1x AEB (slots) award
AEB award from some conventions in Asia

In the contest where AEB slots are set up, an award is given to a contest judged by AEB and judged that there is a possible level for WCM. Please refer to the website for details, since it is unknown at the time this paper was created in which contest the award was set.

If you a member of one of the worldwide American clubs or others from Asia

Compete at other continental championships

NACM (North American Championship of Magic) held at the IBM/SAM combined convention, You can compete at that contest. Please check details from their website etc. You must be a member of IBM or SAM or the Academy of Magical Arts, these societies accept any nationality to be a member.

- Contestant(s) must be a member of your club (except for STEP B/C)
- You must have seen the act of the contestant(s)
- You have the opinion that the act is good enough to compete at FISM WCM*.

*this means for good enough to compete at the FISM WCM, not only good enough to compete at FISM Continental Championships (ACM etc.) level.

No more acceptable
For Asian residences

FISM
ACM

If you got a good result from ACM, you can get a ticket to WCM

FISM
WCM

You got a ticket to go to ACM from the club or presidents, and you can compete for ACM. ACM is deciding which contestants compete at the WCM.

You got a ticket to go to ACM from AEB, and you can compete for ACM. ACM is deciding which contestants compete at the WCM.